THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16th, 1862.

Installation of Governor of Buenos Ayres.

On yesterday the new extra-mural Governor, Dr Mariano Saavedra, was solemnly installed. At 1 P. M. he entered the Senate-house, arm in arm with our respected countryman Mr. Thomas Armstrong. The Prov. Legislature met to the number of 45 Senators and Deputies, and the Provisional Governor named a committee, of M.M. Guerrico, Ocampo, Zelis, Agrelo and Toledo to receive his successor. H. Excellency, standing beside the chairman, with his hand on the gospels, took the customary oath to maintain the liberties, and respect the religion of the province.

He then sat down and said.—Hon. Senators and Deputies.

The solemn oath which I have taken reminds me of the great responsibilities which I assume as Gov: of this province. It will be my care to watch over and enforce the laws. Two things however I foresee are absolutely requisite—1st that the Provincial authority should march in complete harmony with the illustrious government of the Nation. 2nd that all sections of the Liberal party should unite in heart and voice to advance the common interests of Buenos Ayres and the Republic. By such means I rely on a happy future of peace and prosperity.

Sr, Cazon, Chairman, said—I have to congratulate your Excellency on the almost unanimous vote of the Chambers in your favor, and beg you will accept this testimony as a pledge of sincere co-operation in the Government to which you have been called. The Chambers rely on your wisdom, to fulfil the duties entrusted to you, and all parties regard your election as an auspicious event.

The Chamber then rose, the Governor and members retiring to an ante-chamber where a dejeuner was laid out. Meantime the Government state-coach was drawn up at the door, with the escort, and the Italian Guard turned out at the Government house to salute H. Ex. on the reception of the latter by the Prov. Governor, who resigned to him the reins of power, after a brief tenure of four days. Sic transit!

The Paraná Bonds.

Three days have come and gone without any session of the Deputies of Congress, while the credit of the Republic stands at the bar of the House, expecting sentence of life or death. Yet so little do the majority of our Deputies esteem this vital question that they neglect the invitation to the order of the day, and a quorum cannot be formed. It would be well to publish a list of those who attend, that our readers may know how many are detained by sickness, laziness, &c. None can allege more pressing business as an impediment, for what is to be compared with the legislative matters in point of importance? And what subject so vital to Congress as the National funded debt?

Sinister rumors are in circulation, that the non-attendance is a dodge to postpone a measure which cannot be rejected. We cannot believe that even the opponents of these Bonds would descend to so mean a subterfuge, seeing how useless and discreditable it must prove. If the Chambers think fit to imperil their national tranquillity and damn our reputation abroad, rather than admit a debt which they do not think obligatory, let them do so. If on the other hand, the opposition is so weak as to be unable to defeat the bill of the Senate, in fair vote, they will do their duty to the nation and themselves by recording their protest, but nothing can ever be gained by idle procrastination, as dangerous to the character of the absentees as it is pointless in its result.

Congress must decide on the Paraná Bonds before its dissolution, and if some of our Deputies are content to draw their salary without giving the service requisite, it remains for the National Executive to devise the proper means for maintaining intact the glory, honor, and integrity of the Argentine people.

The Season

We are at last approaching the busy season. Shearing has already begun in many parts of the country, but particularly in the north. Great calculations are made as to the quantity of this year's wool, and the average price it will fetch. We have already stated what we consider the clip of 1862 will amount to—viz, two millions two hundred thousand, ar. and we have made this estimate, not from mere guess, but from probably the safest and best of all sources, namely, the statistics we have collected for our Directory for 1863.

Two millions sterling, at the lowest calculation, will be required to pay the farmers. We think we are rather under than over the mark, as from the news received by last packet, it is clear wool will rule higher this year than ever previously in this country.

The condition of the wools, we learn from the principal farmers in the province, will excel that of any previous year. We cannot doubt, therefore, that, in the absence of any intrinsic depreciation in the raw material with speculation in the home markets, and competition in our own, the prospects of the sheep farmers are of the most flattering nature, and that both buyers and sellers will do well this season,

The saladeristas are commencing, also, both in this and the adjoining provinces; but this branch of business is gradually dwindling down to zero, and the killing season has but little effect on our money market now. Forty or fifty millions of paper money would probably pay for all the jerked beef that will be forthcoming from now until March.

Shopkeepers from the country are also making their appearance, and the plazas are full of goods. Every cart that comes in has its cargo waiting for it, and merchants now begin to feel the utter inadequacy of our transit accommodations, in the face of an increasing trade. All the bullocks and carts in this province will be unable to fetch in the wool as fast as it is ready. The consequence is, that farmers are obliged to store it in their houses, where in a few days, if the greatest care is not taken, it loses its color and brightness.

But if our bullock-carts are insufficient to carry the wool, so is the Bank to pay for it; and in about another two months, we are prepared to see shaving on the grandest scale, carried on in calle San Martin. Paper-money, a few days ago, was hardly worth the keeping, but all of a sudden, we hear that the Bank is able to invest now just as much as it gets.

If they can employ all the spare paper money on hand now, what will become of us, a couple of months hence? We will want every ounce in the market to pay for the river produce; we want 250 millions of paper to pay in the plazas, for the wool; and 30 or 40 millions more to pay for other produce. Where is all this money to come from?

Montevideo

A new literary paper, the Aurora, had appeared in Montevideo, and the Zapiron had died.

An address, signed by the principal clergy of the capital, had been presented to the Government, protesting against the appointment of a new vicar. The first signature was that of the President of the Deputies, Dr Martin Perez, curate of San Francisco.

A meeting of clergymen had taken place in the Government house, in which several of these expressed their feelings with much warmth, and orders had been given, in consequence, for their arrest and exile. One of them, a Brazilian, asked pardon from the Government, which was conceded. Two Basques took refuge in the French consulate and another Italian at his own.

The Press of that city is full of the church question.

The Cordoba Railway.

London, Sep 8, '62.

MY DEAR SIR—I beg to thank you for the intimation which you gave to Mr N..and which has been communicated to me, about the projected Rosario and Cordova railway, and the prospects of its becoming a law. I trust it may be divested of any of its objectionable features, for I want every facility the Government can give me, in order to enable me to raise the capital.

The directors of the Southern Railway company have had great difficulty in raising the capital, which is not yet complete, and I believe the articles authorising intervention in the tariff, and compelling the company to sell the road at 20 per cent advance, have both been most serious obstacles. No such demands have ever been asked here, on the Continent, or in North America, as I am aware of; in fact, as to the first, no government would desire to take any part, the interest of the company being considered the best security.

I am sure that no capitalist would risk his capital to carry out the railway for 20 per cent. advance: it is no remuneration.

The Southern Railway company have, I understand, held out the prospect of getting clear of these articles, through their statutes; this may be, but it would be better—infinitely better—to reform the law. I shall do my best, most certainly.

So soon as the law comes forward, I shall lay it at once before my associates, and write the Government fully on the subject. My friends are as influential, perhaps, as any people in London, and will overcome as many obstacles; but to raise a million and a half sterling is no easy matter, and requires all the concessions which can be given. I hope the provinces of Cordoba and Santa Fè will yet give the league of land on each side, for it is their interest to do so, as the value of the surrounding land will be very much enhanced: in fact, the railway will make the province up through which it passes.

I am very much obliged for the interest you have taken in it, and trust that it will lead to closer relations.

I cannot express to you the deep interest I feel in carrying out this enterprise, for I am certain that it will not terminate until eventually it reaches the Pacific.

I remain,
Dear Sir,
Yours, etc,
W. WHEELWRIGHT.

Italy.

Turin Sept. 4.

The Monarchia Nazionale of to day says:—

"A second conference of the Ministers and personages who were present at the first took place yesterday. After a long discussion, the majority were of opinion that the rebels should be tried by special military commissions.

"The military authorities are in favor of trying by a disciplinary council the 32 officers of the Royal troops who threw up their commissions while their brigades were marching against the rebels."

The statu quo for Rome

Paris, September 4th.

The Esprit Public of to-day says:—

"We have reason to believe that at the Council of Ministers, held on Tuesday 1st, Mgr, Morlot and several other members of the Privy Council were present.

"M. Thouvenel had prepared a note to be despatched to Rome, in case the Government decided on the immediate cessation of the occupation of that city by French troops.

"This note, although not absolutely rejected by the Council, was considered inopportune, and its despatch adjourned.

"It is said that the resolutions taken were that the statu quo at Rome should be prolonged for some time and that no modification should take place in the military occupation.

"It is also said that a despatch has been sent to Turin, congratulating the Italian Government on its triumph over the party of action, and that a copy of the despatch has been communicated to the Pontifical Government."

Garibaldi's wounds.

Genoa, Sept. 4

The Movimento of to-day publishes a letter dated the 31st ult, from an officer who was a prisoner with Garibaldi on board the Duca di Genova, which says:—

"Garibaldi's wounds consist of a slight laceration of the left thigh, caused by a ball, and a deeper and more serious wound in the right ankle. Happily the bones do not appear to be fractured. An incision has been made for the purpose of extracting the ball, but without success."

Naples, Sept. 4.

The Patria of to day publishes a proclamation of General Cialdini, granting a limited period to the Garibaldian volunteers who dispersed after the conflict at Aspromonte and the capture of Catania, to present themselves to the authorities.

France—The departure of the Emperor.

Paris, September 5th,

The Moniteur of to day announces that their Majesties and the Prince Imperial have left for Biarritz.

The Moniteur also publishes a letter addressed by the Empress to Count Persigny, thanking him for the deliberations of the Council General in favor of the "Society of the Imperial Prince", and requesting him to make known this expression of her thanks to all the departments.

A Spanish Amnesty.

Madrid, Sept. 3, evening.

A Council of Ministers will shortly take into consideration the question of granting an amnesty to the persons who were condemned to imprisonment for having been implicated in the insurrection at Loja.

The following official statement has been published:—"The authors of disturbances continue to throw small bombs into the streets, but the Government is able to repress any disturbance with promptitude and energy, although determined to avoid any exceptional measures."

Massacre of Armenians at Marash.

Paris, Sept. 4.

The Paris papers of this evening publish the following telegram, dated Alexandria 2nd inst:

"The Mussulmans have massacred the Bishop and 70 Armenians of Marash, a town to the northwest of Aleppo.

"The English Consul at Aleppo accompanies the troops who have been sent to chastise the offenders.

"Agitation prevails in the mountains near Marash."

Advices from Madagascar state that the coronation of the new King would take place shortly.

Rumoured naval combat in the Irish Sea.

The following very doubtful report appears in the Liverpool Telegraph of Monday:—"On Tuesday night last Mr. James Shipley, Channel pilot, who was in charge of the Mary, Captain Marshall, bound from Liverpool to Genoa, states that he witnessed a desperate naval engagement between two vessels, in all probabilities belonging to the two sections of the late American Republic, about twenty-five miles S. S. W, of Holyhead. Mr Shipley says the fight was most fierce and obstinate, the vessels engaging at close quarters, and the horizon, the night being dark, was all but illuminated with the flashing of the guns. All the crew of the Mary on deck at the time witnessed the engagement, and Captain Marshall, who was in bed at the time, was awoke by the loud report of the combatants, and rushed on deck to ascertain the cause of the noise. 'After a time,' Mr. Shipley—who only arrived in Liverpool on Friday night—states, 'one of the vessels appeared to be retreating, but at the same time keeping up a running fire, in fact, fighting on their case was most desperate, the flash of the guns being most vivid and the roar terrific, making the Mary tremble in every timber.' There is little probability but this engagement between Federal and Confederate vessels is in all respects true, for on Wednesday morning Mr. Shipley spoke the Tasmania, Captain Banks, outward bound from Liverpool to Quebec, and in answer to the inquiry if they had witnessed anything of the engagement, replied. 'Yes, we saw it as well as yourselves.'"

Private Circular for the River Plate Mail.

Liverpool, 6th September '62.

The arrivals since our last of the 7th ult. amount to 768 bales, consisting chiefly of Cordova sold to arrive at from 10 1/2d to 11 1/2d.

Our market having been pretty well cleared of low and unwashed River Plate, wools the stocks consist now principally of fine washed, in which there has so far been no move. The colonial sales just concluded in London have gone off at moderate prices for all medium wools, and as they enter into competition with River Plate we cannot look forward for any material improvement in the latter, until the former rise in value.

At Antwerp and Havre the demand for America has been very animated and large quantities have been taken for that market chiefly of the lower kinds to come in at the minimum rate of duty.

By the further concession on the part of importers of 1/4 to 1/2 per lb, the trade, who for so long have acted with extreme caution in their purchase, we re induced to supply themselves freely and in consequence, the sales of both, salted River Plate and Rio Grande Hides, during the past month, have been on a large scale. The demand has run principally upon MonteVideo heavy Ox, which were in large supply. The stocks are now considerably reduced, and the market closes with more firmness.

The market for salted Hides has been characterized by great activity this month, but unattended by any material advances in prices, which usually results from large buying, the business has rather followed upon the reduction submitted to at the end of the last month, and the market closes with more firmness. ## ETRANGER.

FRANCE.

Paris, 2 Septembre.

Le conseil des ministres s'est réuni aujourd'hui, á Saint-Cloud, sous la présidence de l'Empereur, ainsi que l'avait annoncé la feuille officielle.

L'Empereur, l'Imperatrice et le Prince impérial quitteront Saint-Cloud demain mercredi, vers sept heures du soir, pour se rende á Biarritz.

Le séjour de la cour á la ville Eugénie accrédite le bruit d'une entrevue avec la reine Isabelle. L'incident qui s'est produit á l'occasion de la campagne du Mexique peut être l'occasion de cette entrevue, de même qu'il peut être un empêchement á ce qu'elle ait lieu.

ÉTATS UNIS.

New-York, 26 août.

Dans une escarmouche, les confédérés se sont emparés des bagages personnels du général Pope, avec des papiers importants.

Le général Butler a ordonné une remise générale des armes, á la Nouvelle-Orleans. Le consul français a protesté, mais le général n'en a pas moins persisté dans l'execution de la mesure.

"Le Congrés confédéré a adopté l'établissement d'un droit de 20 p% á l'exportation des cotons et de tabacs. Ceite a pour but d'indemniser, avec le produit du droit, les citoyens de la Confédération des pertes que l'ennemi leur a fait éprouver.

Les confédérés menacent Bâton-Rouge.

—Une autre dépêche télégraphique, affichée hier au soir en Bourse, résume comme suit les nouvelles de New York, du 26.

"Des engagemens importans (considerable fighting) ont eu lieu pendant les sept derniers jours. Les forces de Mac-Clellan son allées soutenir celles du général Pope, et les féderaux ont maintenu leur position sur le Rappahannock. Les confédérés, en cherchant á reprendre le forte Donnelson, ont été repoussés.

POLOGNE.

—On écrit de Pétersbourg:

"La police a découvert une vaste conspiration et a arrêté un nombre considérable de personnes qui ont été mises au secret. On a trouvé chez un capitaine d'origine polonaise, nommé Dobrowski, une correspondance avec l'emigration et un plan d'attaque de la citadelle de Varsovia. Ce sont les dépositions de Ryll qui ont amené cette découverte. Ryll, sans pouvoir nommer ceux qui l'ont poussé á l'attentat contre le marquis Wielopolski, a donné des renseignemens assez detaillés sur l'un de ceux qui lui semblaient être les plus zéles. Il a dit avoir vu sa photographie esporée. On lui en a montré un grand nombre plus ou moins resemblantes á Dobrowski, et il a semble le reconnaitre. Alors, la police a fait une descente chez lui et l'a emprisonné. On dit que Dobrowski a nommé beaucoup de conjurés. Un certain Garbris. officiel ministériel, avait été chargé par le comite central de recevoir le serment des conjurés nouvellement enrollés. A l'heure même où deux jeunes gens venaient chez lui pour prêter serment, la police a mis la main sur eux. On a arrête encore, le neveu d'un négociant tres estimé, M. Schlenker, que l'on prétend avoir été un des centurions, parce qu'on a trouvé chez lui une liste de cent conjurés. Par suite de ces découvertes, les arrestations se suivent tous les jours."

Sur les frontières de la Galicie, on a découvert un grand nombre de jeunes gens rôdant dans les forêts, evitant toute relation avec les proprietaires et cherchant á s'aboucher seulement avec les paysans. On assure qu'ils travaillent activement pour les préparer á un soulévement.

Le gouvernement russe travaille en ce moment á Varsovie, au statut sur la presse.

La nouvelle, donnée par la "Gazette de l'Etoile, que le président du Conseil d'État Wielopolski aurait été empoisonné par une lettre, est démentie par la "Presse" de Vienne. Le bruit s'en était répandu, dit cette feuille, á la suite d'un vértigo que le comte avait éprouvé.

MEXIQUE

—Une dépêche de la Vera-Cruz, datée du 1er. août, annonce que Zaragoza n'a pas reparu devant Orizaba depuis le 12 juin. Les journaux mexicains parlent, en outre, d'une mission envoyée par Juarez á l'Empereur. Une navire de notre flotte aurait fait quatre captures importantes.

—Le dernier convoi de navires qui, partant de Toulon, doivent aller prendre á Alger des troupes pour le Mexique quittent aujourd'hui le premier de ces ports.

A Cherbourg, 3,000 hommes environ ont pris passage sur les vaisseaux le Duquesne, le Tourville et le transport l'Eure, qui ont appareillé hier pour le Mexique.

Parmi eux se trouvent le général de brigade de Berthier, son état major et plusieurs officiers prussiens et danois autorisés á faire la campagne; 62e. de ligne, colonel Aymard, venant de Lyon; une batterie du 11e. régiment d'artillerie monté et un escadron du train avec 352 chevaux ou mulets.

On écrit d'Orizaba, le 17 juillet, au Moniteur:

"Depuis l'affaire du 11 juin, l'ennemi n'a pas reparu; malgré ses menaces, le général Zaragoza ne semble guère en mesure de venir nous attaquer. Ses pertes dans cette dernière journée en tués, blessés et disparus sont évaluées par ses partisans eux-mêmes á 5 ou 6,000 hommes. Si l'on en croit les déserteurs qui continuent á arriver au camp français, les soldats mexicains qu'on enrôle de force sont tellement frappés de terreur depuis les combats de Barranca Seca et d'Orizaba, qu'il serait á peu près impossible aujourd'hui de les remener contre nous. D'ailleurs, en admettant même que Zaragoza parvint á reconstituer son armée de façon á oser reprendre l'offensive, il ne saurait, en raison des mesures de défense prises depuis l'arrivée du général Douay, se flatter de tenter avec succès un nouveau coup de main sur Orizaba. Quant á en faire le siége ca regle, c'est pour lui une impossibilité [illegible]

[illegible]

"J'apprends á l'instant [illegible] Doblado [illegible] les plus estimés de la colonie [illegible] un grand chemin [illegible] les troupes de Juarez [illegible] pour le moyen du prisonnier, 2000 piastres, somme qui a été [illegible] quelques jours plus tard á 6000, avec menace de le fusiller si elle n'était pas payée un tres court délai. On a lieu de craindre que cette menace n'ait eté suivie d'exécution, plusieurs personnes tombées entre les mains des mêmes miserables ayant déjà peri pour n'avoir pu satisfaire á leurs exigences. Ce nouvel attentat demontre une fois de plus l'impuissance du gouvernement a proteger la vie et la propriété des habitants, et justifie de plus en plus ceux qui ne voient de salut possible pour le Mexique que dans une intervention des tiers [illegible] en ce pays de [illegible] on il se débat depuis tant d'années.

GARIBALDI.

—La Gazette officielle, de Turin, relate en ces termes les circonstances qui ont présidé au départ de Garibaldi de Catane:

"Dans la soirée du 24, Garibaldi s'est emparé de deux vapeurs postaux qui se trouvaient dans le porte de Catane, s'est embarqué sur ces navires avec une partie de ses volontaires, laissant le gros de sa bande á Catane. Il en est parti mécontent et découragé, parceque la population catanaise ne s'était pas montrée favorable, qu'elle ne lui a fourni ni aide ni argent, et que toutes les personnes notables s'étaient enfuies. Dans le port de Catane se trouvaient, ce soir lá, les deux frégates le Victor Emmanuel et le Duc de Gênes. Le gouvernement ne sait pas encore positivement comment il est arrivé que ces deux frégates n'aient pas empêché l'embarquement de Garibaldi, aprés les ordres précis et résolus qui leur avaient été données á ce sujet.

"Le ministre de la marine, arrivé á Messine le jour suivant, a fait immédiatement arrêter les commandans de ces deux frégates, ordonnant qu'il fussent transportés á Gênes pour y être traduits devant un conseil de guerre. Le gouvernement est décidé á procéder avec la plus grande sévérité et á faire appliquer sans rémission les peines légales contre ceux qui seront reconnus coupables d'avoir transgressé les ordres reçus."

Nous lisons, en outre, dans l'Italie.

"Contrairement á la nouvelle donnée par la Discussione, nous croyons savoir que les deux paquebots poste français dont selon ce journal, Garibaldi se serait emparé á l'abordage, ne sont que deux paquebots á vapeur faisant le service de dépêches italiennes, appartenant l'un á la Compagnie Valery, l'autre a la Compagnie Florio, et naviguant tous deux sous pavillon italien.

No Sheep-Farmer should be without it.

This valuable preparation which is now used by nearly all the wool growers of this country, is a concentrated extract, one pound of which is equal to ten pounds of tobacco, retaining in this compact form all the properties of the raw material. The only labor required to render the wash ready for use, is, to stir the paste into the quantity of cold water, needed for the number of sheep to be cured.

The most satisfactory recommendations of its perfect safety, simplicity and utility, from the principal Estancieros of this country may be had on application to the undersigned. Full directions for use are given on each tin.
